February is Black History Month in Canada

Every February, people across Canada participate in Black History Month events and festivities that honour the legacy of Black Canadians and their communities.

The 2022 theme for Black History Month is: “February and Forever: Celebrating Black History today and every day,” which focuses on recognizing the daily contributions that Black Canadians make to Canada.

No matter where you live, we invite all Canadians to learn more about these communities, and how they continue to help shape the story of Canada.

Online program teaches Black Canadian history

(Excerpts from article in The Brandon Sun, February 2, 2022)

Andre Sheppard, who is a presenter of the Community Voices Series project, says the program— created by the Manitoba Museum and Black History Manitoba and aimed at grade 5 and 6 students — fills historical gaps in what school-children learn about the country and province they live in.

From a Manitoba perspective, the lesson focuses on role models, people such as John Robinson, a Black railway porter who in 1917 formed the Order of Sleeping Car Porters after being denied membership by the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, an all-white union. His story is also presented in the museum’s Winnipeg Gallery. Families of those porters helped form the Pilgrim Baptist Church, the oldest Black church in Manitoba, and their stories, passed from one generation to the next, are part of the virtual lesson.

The lesson also introduces viewers to William Beal, who settled in the Swan River valley in western Manitoba in 1906 after moving from Minneapolis. The museum describes him as

The Railway Porters Union Band of Winnipeg pose in front of the Bank of Montreal. Founded in 1917, the porters union was the first Black railway union in North America. (L.B. Foote/Province of Manitoba Archives)

“Renaissance Man of the North” in its Parklands Gallery, owing to his many skills and interests.

Beal was a photographer and took many portraits of neighbouring settlers; he was also a steam engineer who oversaw logging operations. He formed a literary society, helped doctors administer vaccines during the Spanish flu epidemic in 1918 and 1919, and served as a school trustee for three decades.

“It not only features him as a really interesting person, but also shares some of his photographs, which really tells a lot of community life in the Swan River area in the early 20th century.”

A Better World: One Water Project at a Time

Through Mission & Service you help provide solutions to water issues worldwide.

According to UNICEF, more than half of the global population does not have access to safe sanitation and 2.2 billion people still lack access to safe drinking water. Today—Baptism of Jesus Sunday—is a good day to consider our relationship with water.

How many Bible stories do you know have to do with water? Many of us have heard the story of Moses making water flow from rock and parting the Red Sea. We may remember stories about Jesus turning water into wine, walking on water, and calming it, too. So often, water is the focal point of God's miracles and grace. It figures prominently because it's necessary.

Clean water is essential to life, and yet around the world people suffer for lack of it.

The issues are complex. Climate change is altering weather and water patterns, causing shortages and droughts in some areas and floods in others. In some parts of the world, a growing population means rising demand and there isn't enough water to go around. Water infrastructure problems sometimes mean people can't access water even when it is available. There are racial and gender implications to accessing water, too. Did you know that, on average, women and children in the Global South walk nearly 6 kilometres to access water and carry nearly 19 liters of water every day?

Through Mission & Service you help provide solutions to water issues worldwide.

Your generosity supports irrigation projects and provides accessibility to water. Your gifts help construct bore holes, wells, and rain catchment tanks, which in turn address food security and sanitation issues in communities. During crises, your gifts help deliver drinking water where it's needed most. In the midst of the global pandemic, your support is helping to construct sanitation stations and share life-saving hygiene communications through flyers and radio programs.

Thank you for your generosity!

Together, we can build a better world. One water project at a time.

Welcome to the 'Freedom' Café!

We trust you to make your own choices if you want to wear a face mask. And, in the same spirit of individual liberty, we allow our staff to make their own choice about the safety procedures they prefer to follow as they prepare and serve your food.

We encourage employees to wash their hands after using the bathroom, but understand that some people may be allergic to certain soaps or may simply prefer not to wash their hands. It is not out place to tell them what to do!

We understand that you may be used to chicken that has been cooked to 165 degrees. We do have to respect that some of our cooks may have seen a meme or a YouTube video saying that 100 degrees is fine and we do not want to encroach on their beliefs.

Some servers may wish to touch your food as they serve it. There is no reason that a healthy person with clean hands can't touch your food. We will take their word for it that they are healthy and clean!

Water temperature and detergent are highly personal choices, and we allow our dishwashing team to decide how they'd prefer to wash the silverware you will put in your mouth.

Some of you may get sick, but almost everyone survives food poisoning. We think you'll agree that it's a small price to pay for the sweet freedom of no one ever being told what to do and especially not for the silly reason of keeping strangers healthy!!
